Halcyon ^{22'}

Halcyon. adjective, denoting a period of time in the past that was idyllically happy and peaceful.

A Chardonnay sourced from a vineyard in Dundee Hills AVA. Small lot production of only 40 cases. Our first Chardonnay inspired by beautiful summers basking in the sun. A wine built to be enjoyed during those moments of peace before dinner while the food is cooking, and you are enjoying a glass. Refreshing, revitalizing, happy.

Wine Profile

Vineyard Notes
Dundee Hills AVA. Elevation - 300-700 feet, Clone 95. Jory Soil.

Production Notes
Aged 50% New French Oak and 50% Stainless Steel.

Sealionne 2021 Chardonnay

Toast your halcyon days with a Chardonnay that fills the air with aromas of poached pears with vanilla, beeswax and fresh pine needles. The acidity of this wine takes no prisoners, with its crisp texture and flavors like lemon shortbread, lemon basil and chilled cucumber slices.

- Michael Alberty

Métier ^{22'}

Métier. Ones true calling or pursuit for which one believes oneself to be especially fitted.

A Pinot Noir sourced from a higher elevation Southeast facing vineyard overlooking Mt. Hood. This 777 clone, aged without oak, is the definition of beautiful, bright fruit. It drinks beautifully at cellar temperature - but also pairs well with sunny afternoons on the porch and a slight chill on the bottle!

Wine Profile

Vineyard Notes
Chehalem Mountains AVA. High elevation - 500 feet, Clone 777. Laurelwood Soil.

Production Notes
80% Stainless steel, 20% clay amphora. 30% whole cluster.

Kilig ^{22'}

Kilig. adjective, causing or characterized by a feeling of exhilaration or elation.

This Pinot Noir is from our flagship Estate Vineyard in Ribbon Ridge AVA. A blend of 115, Pomard, 777, and Wädensville clones grown on marine sediment soil at an elevation between 300 and 800 feet. This vineyard is full of different aspects that create various different sub and micro climates within the vineyard blocks. We felt an immediate sense of kilig when we walked onto this property for the first time, a profound sense of exhilaration. We hope this wine accompanies you while you experience your own sense of kilig.

Aged 11 months in French Oak, 20% clay amphora. Unfined and Unfiltered.
